

Peterson House Sparkling White Wine

Gateway 8/30

Pale straw in colour, with a fresh green-gold hue and lively effervescence. A full palate makes for a soft and fruity wine which still finishes with a crisp natural acid finish.

Cuvée 10/37.5

A blend of vintages and varieties is maintained to present a wine which will appeal to a wide variety of palates. The palate is long, clean and crisp with a satisfying dry finish.

Zibibbo 10/37.5

Fresh, crisp and zesty – that's our take on Zibibbo. Lovely fresh fruity aromas and a finish like the first bite of a sweet apple.

2015 Pinot Noir 12/43.5

Hints of citrus on the front palate give way to a mix of yeasty characters. The lingering acid on the finish gives the structure and elegance which balance this wine so well.

2017 Chardonnay 10/37.50

Summer stone fruits come to mind at first sip then blending into a slight buttery mouthfeel. Finishing with a crisp clean rich fruit characters

2013 Semillon Pinot Noir 12/43.5

Citrus notes are fresh and lifted on the front palate. The acid on the finish is subtle but refreshing, and there is a residual zing of mixed citrus rind.

2014 Chardonnay Pinot Noir 12/43.5

Chardonnay and Pinot Noir, the classic sparkling varieties, combine citrus and berries. Citrus dominates the front palate. The creamy mouth feel and toasty notes from the yeast meld with hints of berries. The finish is crisp and clean.

2012 Semillon ^{Reserve} 14/49.5

Light gold colour. Aromas of lanolin & tropical fruits lead a creamy rich mid palate. The toasty notes give way to orange & lemon peel acid which lingers on the finish.

2013 Pinot Noir Chardonnay Viogner 14/49.5

Grapefruit and limes hit the tongue when it is first in your mouth. The finish is fine and elegant with just a hint of green apple and pear which refreshes the palate. Has the weight and acid to work with all sorts of foods.

Prosecco 14/49.5

As this first hits the palate it is spritzy and fresh. The lively bubbles offset some strong fruity notes. One for all occasions, great to start off your meal.

Peterson House Sparkling Red Wine

N/V Shiraz 8/30

An easy drinking red. The rich fruit sweetness is balanced with natural tannin and acid giving a lively fresh palate.

2015 Merlot 11/40.5

Full bodied and full flavoured this merlot still retains its smooth easy drinking style. Spice, berry fruits and some lavender aromas mix with the palate which has mint, blackcurrants and some soft tannin.

2016 Malbac Petit Verdot Shiraz 10/37.50

The combination of the 3 varieties gives a wine that is full and rich but easy drinking. The acid and tannins balance well with the sugar dosage to leave the finish clean and satisfying.

2012 Sangiovese 15/54

The aroma is earthy with tobacco and tea notes. The palate has some light cherry flavours and hints of cigar box. The tannins are gentle and subtle acid on the finish.

2011 Petit Verdot 15/54

The initial taste is rich and full of plum pudding notes. Its bouquet is one of a cigar box and tobacco blend with a spicy rich berry nose. It is a great food wine bridging from entrée to dessert.

2010 Shiraz 15/54

This wine has a bit of everything you can expect from a sparkling Shiraz. After a gently fruit hit these flavours subside and soft oak and yeasty characters linger towards the finish. The overall impression is neither sweet nor dry, but satisfying, refreshing and more'ish.

Rouge Lisse 14/49.5

A playful and exciting blend of Merlot and Muscat. Lisse is smooth and sweet. The aroma is like a bag of musk sticks and lush strawberries. Fill your mouth full of fun and enjoy this rich but refreshing wine.

Peterson House Sparkling Rosé

Pink Blush Rosé 8.5/31.5

Pale Pink tones derived from the blending of our white wine base with a dash of red wine. The natural acidity of the wine is balanced by the sweeter finish.

Illusion Rosé 8.5/31.5

Fresh red cherry colour. A fun wine which surprises with a tannin finish lasting after the sweetness has imparted an easy drinkability to the wine. Very full palate, without the acid length of some drier styles.

Dolce Per Tutti Moscato 14/49.5

Dolce per Tutti means "Sweet for Everyone". Watermelon pink in colour. The high residual sugar will surprise even those with a dry palate. This sweet style of wine is surprisingly refreshing.

Peterson House Still Wine

2015 Peterson House Semillon 9/33

Hunter Valley Semillon is a traditional variety with an outstanding fresh clean fruit palate. A hint of residual sugar makes it an easy drinking style.

2014 Peterson House Merlot 9/33

Overall the wine is soft and smooth but the palate is full and generous. There are hints of fruit and spice mixed with ripe berries. The oak and tannins combine to give a savoury finish.

2016 Peterson House Shiraz 9/33

A full bodied wine with rich berry fruits, white pepper and subtle licorice on the palate. The palate is fruity and fills the mouth. It leaves a warm creamy sensation long after it is finished.

Peterson House Dessert Wine

N/V Muscat 10/40

Matured traditionally to achieve a rich complex palate with good acidity and tannins from the barrel ageing. This Muscat has pleasant caramelised characters that integrate with fruit pudding, brandy sauce, and toffee nuances.

N/V Sparkling Fortified Shiraz 11.5/40

An exciting interpretation of fortified wine. Deep dark and rich in colour. The flavours of ripe raspberry and boysenberry up front are luscious, rich, generous and sweet. Despite the fruity sweetness the tannins and acid balance the finish.

2015 Sparkling Botrytis Semillon 11.5/40

All the richness of Botrytis Semillon is captured with the bubbles adding acidity and a crispness to the finish. The effervescence of the bubbles gives a slight sherbet character. Apricot and Marmalade characters hit you up front and complement the mixed peel and citrus aromas. The finish is long and lingering.
